Digital Workspace

• Aggregate Windows, Linux, Web and SaaS applications and desktops in one unified workspace
• Provides access to physical desktop, laptops and servers via secure RDP integrations without requiring any agents
• Provides secure access to internal SMB file shares or SharePoint repositories. It integrates with cloud repositories such as OneDrive.
• Proprietary HTML5 experience runs your workspace in any browser (including. BlackBerry Access) on any search device
• Access and share company files securely from desktop containerized browser
• Full usage audit, anomaly detection, context aware login, granular control and MFA built-in
• Optimized security and compliance: no local data, full usage audit, multi-factor authentication
• Available only through a secure containerized browser that supports FIPS validated cryptography, Common Criteria EAL 4+certification. Data is always encrypted when browsing, both at rest and during transmission
• Selectively remote wipe the secure browser to protect corporate information and content
• without effecting user's personal data